

BIOGRAPHY

ECLIPTICA – founded originally as a solo project by Markus Winkler – since mid 2005 with constant line up.

December 2006

ECLIPTICA had their debut in front of 400 maniacs supporting DEAD SOUL TRIBE.

April 2007

ECLIPTICA successfully released their Debut-EP "The Awakening" in front of 500 people at Planet Music Vienna.

Spring/Summer 2007

ECLIPTICA won the "Metal Battle Austria 2007" Contest and therefore played a set at the world famous "WACKEN OPEN AIR" in Germany.

They also got their chance to play DONAUINSELFEST 2007 and did their first show band acting at the Austrian BIG BROTHER AWARDS.

Not to forget the support slot for the major US-Prog Metal gods SYMPHONY X.

November 2007

After a Club tour EVELIN PIELER quit the band and has been replaced by ELISABETH FANGMEYER.

January 2008

The band entered "Hinterhof Studios Vienna" to record their first full length album "IMPETUS", which will be released in Austria and Germany on 17th May 2008.

Spring/Summer 2008

The release party for IMPETUS happened again at PLANET MUSIC Vienna in front of 500 people.

After that ECLIPTICA played the Corinthian Festival "Strawberry Fields" and on July, 11th they opened the Vienna Show of IN EXTREMO, in front of 2000 people, very successfully.

September 2008

Bernie Scholz (guitar) and Elisabeth Fangmeyer (female vocals) left ECLIPTICA due to personal reasons.

ALEN DURICIC followed on the guitar position; the female singer will be not replaced for the moment.

October 2008

ECLIPTICA were signed by the Italian label FRONTIERS RECORDS to release their debut album IMPETUS worldwide.

December 2008

IMPETUS was released in Europe and Australia.

February 2009

IMPETUS was released in Japan.

Bass player FLORIAN THUER quit the band due to personal and private reasons.

May 2009

ECLIPTICA presented MARIA MELENDEZ and SANDRA URBANEK as new female singers and ALEXANDER BASSTARD as new bass player.